

WEEK 8: Animal Crackers

■ Subject-Verb Agreement, Numbers

Lobsters walks around on 8 legs just as spiders do.

■ Using the Right Word, Comma (To Separate Phrases and Clauses), Abbreviations, Adjective (Articles)

Only an fraction of an inch long at berth lobsters may grow to way as much as 20 lbs.

■ Pronoun-Antecedent Agreement, Subject-Verb Agreement, End Punctuation, Using the Right Word

A baby squirrel is born with it's eyes closed, and they keep them closed four about a month

■ Using the Right Word, Comma (Between Independent Clauses), Double Negative

Starfish don't have no legs but they can creep around on alot of little tube feet.

■ Abbreviations, Wordy Sentence, Using the Right Word

A beaver can swim half a mile and hold it's breath for 15 min., which is a quarter of an hour.